

1. USDA Rural Development loan	2. Possible additional funding: Community Development Block Grant	3. Possible group contracting for side sewers (feasibility to be determined by County)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Administered by/ applications through USDA Rural Development For low to moderate income households (eligible by income) Lifetime loan/grant assistance may not exceed $7,500 To receive a grant/loan, owner must have limited non-retirement assets and the residence receiving the grant/loan must be owner-occupied <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Grants may be extended to those property owners 62 and older, loans are generally for those under 62 years of age 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Would be administered by Mason County (if awarded) For low-moderate income households (eligible by income) Next steps: Mason County applies for grant (fall 2009) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Possibility for better prices on side sewer construction Possible benefit of reduced coordination with contractors, and ease of securing permits.
Find out more at the USDA Rural Development Web site http://www.rurdev.usda.gov/wa/ or contact Shayna Dickey.		